CLEARWATER COUNTY CENTURY FARMS POLICY

The Century Farm designation is intended to recognize and celebrate those founding families that own and farm at least 160 acres in Clearwater County, and can trace their roots back to land which has been owned by descendants for at least 100 years.

1. The land must be continuously owned by the same family and be actively farmed for 100 years or more.
2. The applicant must provide evidence demonstrating kinship ties between the applicant and the original founder of the farm.
3. The applicant's current farm size should be at least 160 acres.
4. The applicant must provide the following information:
 - Date of homestead establishment
 - Land location
 - Copy of the land title
5. Century Farm recipients will receive a plasma cut metal sign – similar to the one pictured below.
